

(2020SP1-FSMA-6095-02) International Finance Law & Regulation

Home / My courses / \(2020SP1-FSMA-6095-02\) International Finance Law &... / Module 2 / Overview

Administration

> Course administration

My courses

 \(2020SP1-FSMA-6095-02\) International Finance Law & Regulation

 \(2020SP1-FSMA-6080-01\) International Accounting

Navigation

▼ Home

 Dashboard

> Site pages

▼ My courses

▼ \(2020SP1-FSMA-6095-02\) International Finance Law &...

> Participants

 Grades

> International Financial Law And Regulation

> Course Information

> Module 1

▼ Module 2

 Overview

 Issues to Consider and How to Brief A Case

 Readings

 M2A1: Case Brief

 M2A2: Analyses Of Articles

 M2D1: Discussion

> Module 3

 LEARNscape Media Gallery

> \(2020SP1-FSMA-6080-01\) International Accounting

 My LEARNscape Media

Overview

This Module builds on Module One in that the financial market regulation will be further explored. Analyzing these regulations is always challenging as any time a new regulation or set of regulations are enacted the implementation aspect is always unpredictable as the "law of unintended consequences" seldom fails to make its presence known to some degree. At times the degree can be significant while at other times it's merely comparable to a speed bump that can be easily overcome and not derail the intended and/or projected impact of new regulation(s).

Last modified: Thursday, May 11, 2017, 10:32 AM

◀ M1D1: Discussion

Jump to...

Issues to Consider and How to Brief A Case ▶

You are logged in as Mohammad Nahian (Log out)

2020SP1-FSMA-6095-02

The content in this course is subject to copyright law. All content that is not specifically marked Public Domain or Creative Commons is only for the use of students enrolled in this course, for purposes associated with this course, and is not to be retained or disseminated. Content that is marked Creative Commons may be used under the terms of the relevant Creative Commons license.

Accessibility